HEAVY DUTY EXTRUDED ALUMINUM SLIDING PATIO DOOR SCREEN

HISTORICALLY, low quality roll formed sliding patio door screens are offered as the standard in both the original equipment and home Improvement markets. These units rarely perform trouble free over time and often require replacement after just a few years of service. Now the standard has risen to a new, high level with FABRICO HD SERIES Extruded Aluminum Sliding Patio Door Screens. HD Series screens combine rugged reliability with a pleasantly appealing look to make them a fine value.
